

Noncustodial PROFILE Waiver Request

- Your Noncustodial PROFILE Application has been or will be created and will be available for your noncustodial parent to complete. If you have no contact with your noncustodial parent, you may request to waive this requirement from each college that is requesting the Noncustodial PROFILE Application. See below process for next steps.
- Submission of this application does not guarantee that your request will be approved.
- Each college will make its own decision and communicate that decision to you. Each college reserves the right to request additional information regarding your waiver request.
- You are encouraged to check the website(s) of your college(s) to ensure that you are meeting your financial aid application requirements.
- Be aware that not every college will accept this document. Colleges may require their own form as well as additional documentation; if so, you must follow the college's instructions for submitting a Noncustodial PROFILE waiver request.

Types of waiver requests that may be considered:

- Documented abuse situations with your noncustodial parent.
- Legal orders that limit the noncustodial parent's contact with the student.
- No contact or support ever received from the noncustodial parent.

Examples of documents that may be required:

- Court documents or legal orders, as available.
- Third-party documentation - a written statement or letter from a counselor, a social worker, a teacher, or clergy who can certify to your situation. Statements from family members or attorneys will not be accepted.

Types of waiver requests that will not be considered:

- Noncustodial parent refuses to complete the form.
- Divorce decree states that the noncustodial parent is not responsible for the student's educational expenses.

Instructions for submitting the Noncustodial PROFILE Waiver Request:

- Print the form and complete it.
- Make a copy of your completed form for each college that will accept this form.
- Sign each college's copy.
- Mail the signed copy, with all required documentation, to each of your colleges that will accept this form.
- Keep a copy for your records.
